

Adams Street Partners Announces New Partner Promotions

Two New Partners on the Private Credit Team Highlight Strategy Strength and Growth

CHICAGO, IL – February 3, 2025 – Adams Street Partners, LLC, a leading private markets investment management firm with more than $61 billion in assets under management (“Adams Street”), today announced the promotions of Emily Shiau and Nolan Pauker to Partners on the Private Credit Team, effective January 1, 2025. These promotions underscore the firm’s commitment to the continued growth of its private credit strategy and follow Adams Street’s seventh consecutive year of being recognized as one of the “Best Places to Work in Money Management.”<sup>1</sup>

Shiau and Pauker, both longstanding senior members of the Private Credit team, have been integral to the success of the strategy and support all aspects of the decision-making process, including sourcing, structuring, reviewing and negotiating deal opportunities. Both are based in the firm’s New York City office.

“Emily and Nolan’s contributions have been significant in driving the strategy’s achievements amid surging private credit interest,” said Bill Sacher, Partner & Head of Private Credit at Adams Street. “We look forward to their enhanced leadership roles as we continue to grow the strategy and seek to deliver value within the core middle market.”

Shiau joined the firm in 2016 and was recognized as one of PEI’s Women of Influence in Private Markets in 2023 for her outstanding contributions to the industry and achievements throughout her career.<sup>2</sup> Prior to Adams Street, Shiau held positions at Alvarez & Marsal within their Restructuring Investment Banking team and was in Leveraged Finance at Citigroup.

Pauker joined Adams Street in 2019. Prior to Adams Street, he worked at SLR Capital Partners, LLC, where he was a private credit investment professional for a number of years. He began his career in the Financial Restructuring Group of Houlihan Lokey Capital, Inc.
