

Adams Street Partners Launches Advisor Academy Resource for Wealth Advisors

New educational platform offers private markets insights for financial and wealth advisors

CHICAGO, IL – February 18, 2025 – Adams Street Partners, LLC, a leading private markets investment management firm with more than $62 billion in assets under management, today announced the launch of the Adams Street Advisor Academy, a private markets educational resource for wealth advisors. The library provides diverse content, including a guide to navigating private investing and access to our thought leadership across strategies equipping financial advisors with useful and timely information for their clients.

“The Advisor Academy provides core educational content for advisors seeking to better understand private markets,” said Jim Walker, Partner & Global Head of Wealth. “The curated content enables us to better support our advisor partners. Adams Street will continue sharing insights gained from over five decades of investing in private markets to support the private wealth community.”

The Advisor Academy is located within Adams Street’s Private Wealth Solutions website, and provides in-depth insights into foundational private market concepts, common private markets investment strategies, and essential industry terminology. The educational platform enriches Adams Street’s current suite of private wealth services by offering high-caliber, easily accessible resources deeply rooted in the firm’s extensive experience in data-driven private markets investing.

“As Adams Street partners with more financial advisors, the Advisor Academy acts as an educational resource for leveraging the unique advantages of private markets investing,” said Jeffrey Diehl, Managing Partner & Head of Investments. “Private wealth is a growing segment at Adams Street, and we are committed to providing institutional-quality private market solutions that help financial advisors grow and protect client wealth.”
